BROCKTON MAN CONVICTED OF CRACK COCAINE AND AMMUNITION CHARGES

BOSTON, MA - A Brockton man was convicted yesterday in U.S. District Court of possession of crack cocaine with intent to distribute and being a felon in possession of ammunition.

United States Attorney Michael J. Sullivan and Glenn N. Anderson, Special Agent in Charge of the Bureau of Alcohol Tobacco and Firearms - Boston Field Division, Colonel Mark Delaney, Superintendent of the Massachusetts State Police, Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy Cruz and Brockton Police Chief William Conlon announced that MAURICE J. FAGAN, age 35, of Battles Street, Brockton, Massachusetts was convicted by a jury sitting before U.S. District Judge Rya W. Zobel of possession of crack cocaine with intent to distribute and being a felon in possession of ammunition.

Evidence presented during the two day trial proved that FAGAN possessed crack cocaine, scales and other drug paraphernalia, 78 rounds of ammunition and a loaded revolver when the Massachusetts State Police and the Brockton Police executed a search warrant at his residence in Brockton.

Sentencing is scheduled for June 11, 2008. FAGAN faces up to life in prison, a five year term of supervised release and millions of dollars in fines.

The case was investigated by the Bureau of Alcohol Tobacco and Firearms, the Massachusetts State Police Gang Unit and the Brockton Police Department. It was prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorneys Anthony Fuller and George Vien of Sullivan's Public Corruption and Special Prosecutions Unit.
